Animal Protectors of Allegheny Valley waives all liability in the event to accidents or personal damages to a person while volunteering their services for the shelter. This signed Statement confirms the volunteer or parent/legal guardian, when applicable, accepts all responsibility for said occurrences.

The minimum age for dog care volunteers and office/adoption volunteers is 18. After six months of consistent volunteering in other areas, volunteers aged 16-17 may be considered for dog care opportunities. Children 16-17 years of age may volunteer in all other capacities with signed permission of parent or legal guardian, who is required to accompany the child to the shelter to sign the waiver. Children under the age of 16 are not permitted to volunteer or to accompany parents during their hours of service.

While at the shelter or at a shelter event, Animal Protectors reserves the right to take and use any and all photographs for public relations and marketing efforts, including but not limited to the web site, social media, brochures and newsletters. By signing this release, I give permission for my photos to be used.
